Northern Tanzania is the perfect region to witness the Great Migration in February, as the annual wildebeest and zebra migration arrives on these plains to give birth to thousands of calves.

Tanzania is the land of safaris and this journey is an excellent choice, whether it is your first safari or your fifth. Wildlife lovers, keen photographers and those who have been on safari with us in Kenya, should seriously consider joining us on yet another phenomenal safari. The country's prolific wildlife and stunning scenery make it one of the most sought after safari destinations. The Serengeti and Ngorongoro Crater are stars of the show and are rightly world famous as two of the best places on the planet to encounter 'the Big 5'. Our first stop on the 'Northern Safari Circuit' is Lake Manyara, a bird watcher's paradise with an abundance of birdlife, and unique tree climbing lions.

On this safari you will be staying in a lodges in a more remote and unique camps set up in key wildlife corridors. This February departure is timed to coincide with the Great Migration calving season, and is without doubt one of the most special wildlife spectacles on earth!

Today, we head off to start our safari adventure.

We depart Arusha after breakfast and drive to the village of Mto Wa Mbu village. Here you can either explore the village on foot with a guide or tour the village in a Tuk Tuk, visiting farms, local houses, schools, milling machines and churches.

We take our lunch at the local banana plantation where they grow more than 30 different varieties of bananas. Other than learning how the banana is grown, you're also told of the different uses of this versatile fruit.

After lunch we head into Manyara National Park, which is located in a spectacular region of the Great Rift Valley, and has a large lake, wetland forest, acacia woodland and open grassland. Wildlife roams the plains and frequent the waters of the lake and the Simba River, which are teeming with hippo. The forests of the region are home to blue monkeys, vervets, baboons, aardvark, pangolin, leopard and even black rhino. The area is also home to famous tree-climbing lions.

You'll spot your first wild animals before you reach the lodge. Standing high cliff above Lake Manyara, the our lodge for the next two nights commands panoramic views across the Great Rift Valley.

Today, some 42,000 Maasai live in the Ngorongoro Conservation Area with their cattle, donkeys, goats and sheep. The Maasai are allowed to take their animals into the Crater for water and grazing, but not to live or cultivate there. During our visit, we'll learn about their unique culture.

DAY 6 - THE SPECTACULAR SERENGETI

After breakfast, we depart the Ngorongoro Crater as we make our way to probably Tanzania's most famous park - the Serengeti.

We drive towards our lodge in the Serengeti, spotting game and enjoying lunch as we go.

The name Serengeti comes from the Maasai 'Siringet', meaning an endless plain. Declared a Game Reserve in 1929, in 1951 the Reserve became Tanganyika's first National Park, which included the Ngorongoro Crater.

Further alterations to the park's limits took place to provide more protection to the wildebeest migration. Covering 14,763 square kilometres, today it is roughly the size of Northern Ireland and Tanzania's largest National Park.

The Ndutu area is popular with the wildebeest and zebra, which often calve in its short grassy plains.

Our lodge here offers a superb base from which to explore the range of habitats that lie within easy reach - swamps, woodlands, soda lakes and the world famous Serengeti short grass plains.
